Linda is married with one son who is a BIG Bama fan. Linda is one of the sweetest women and loves to meet people. She is ready to help anybody. Linda is an excellent artist and has been since she was a teenager, (long time ago). Stop by her shop and see some of her artwork.

Rita is Linda's little sister (DO THEY HAVE THE SAME MOM???) Rita has been my friend for so long. I can't remember not knowing her. Do Not mention a funeral to her. Last year my nephew died suddenly. I called her and asked if she wanted to ride 6 hours one way (not in the motor home). She quickly said "let me get my bag and VISOR and I will be right there". The visor is another story. She went with us for the ride. Not the funeral. We stayed with my brother and this wife. When Gail asked Rita if she wanted breakfast, she said she is not a breakfast person. After her 3rd plate, my brother told my sister in law not to dare mention lunch to her!!! She said she thought they were talking about sticky buns and coffee. Well, she must know country folks who put out a spread. Great gal and despite it all, Bobby and I love her.
